

The following tips will help you write an opportunity that will engage volunteers and communicate the pertinent information for the position.

Organization/ Program Name(s)	Tips	Sample Organization Response
Impact Statement	Volunteers want to know the impact of their support. How will their volunteer commitment make a difference? What is the organization’s mission or vision statement? Note: This field has a limited amount of words. Make the statement vibrant and concise.	PIN example: We believe that volunteerism helps to build a vibrant, healthy resilient community.
Position Title	This is a required field. Give your volunteer position a meaningful name that describes what the person will be doing. This is a job title and volunteers will want to use this on a resume. Generic titles such as “worker” and “helper” aren’t going to show the skills the volunteer has used or developed while contributing to your mission.	Administrative Office Volunteer
Contact	This is a required field. Include the name, job title and contact information for the person volunteers should call to ask questions and apply to. You must include the email address for the contact person as it is essential for receiving automatic notifications from potential volunteers.	Jane Doe Volunteer Coordinator Sample Organization 123-456-7890 janedoe@sampleorganization.ca
Duties	This is your chance to sell your position to potential volunteers. Share what they will be doing and how it relates to your mission. Take the time explain to a volunteer the specific tasks they will be asked to do.	Volunteers will be required to answer phones, photocopy documents, prepare mailings and greet guests as they arrive. These tasks will assist Sample Organization in raising funds to support their programs.

More Info Link	This field should be used to link the potential volunteer to a distinct page on your website that provides information about volunteering. Try to avoid linking to your homepage. You want to make it easy for a volunteer to apply to work with your organization.	Instead of sampleorganization.ca , include sampleorganization.ca/volunteers
Benefits	Share the benefits of volunteering with your organization. These can be tangible, experiential or emotional. Explain how volunteers receive these benefits, if they aren't immediately provided.	Volunteers will gain x and y skills and have the opportunity to work with likeminded people. Volunteers will have the opportunity to participate in monthly training session, receive free parking and refreshments on each shift, and will be provided with a volunteer t-shirt. Volunteers will be reimbursed for their Police Records Check after 3 months.
Clients	Explain the type of people volunteers will interact with and/or make a change for.	Volunteers will interact with staff and other volunteers who are raising funds to support individuals with special needs.

Other items to note:

- Please allow up to 10 business days for the record to be reviewed, created and/or updated.
- In order for a position to be posted live to the database, a Community Information record requires to be attached to the Volunteer Opportunity. Additional time for the team at PIN who lead this area may be required.
- When considering recruitment, please allow ample time for the position to be posted. For example: volunteer needed to begin for May 1; allow time for orientation, training, screening prior to start date and provide ample time for the position to be viewed on the database. For this example, posting of the position needed for June 1, it is recommended that it be posted at the beginning of April. I.e. 4 – 6 weeks of live database, 2 – 4 weeks for interviews, screening, orientation and training.
- Prior to posting a new position, we welcome members to inquire about expired records. Why create new when you can upcycle an archived position?
- Know that you have positions that have expired? Complete this form to request an update <http://pinnetwork.ca/request-expired-opportunities/>
- PIN will send out monthly update requests to the member record contact for positions that expired in the previous month.
- When considering recruitment for a volunteer opportunity, listing an opportunity on the database is one way to recruit. A fulsome recruitment strategy will assist in the success of your volunteer program.
- Weekly Friday Recruitment Ads showcasing volunteer opportunities are tagged on social media. Help spread the word! Retweets, shares and comments will help propel the recruitment message further.
- Posting of unlimited volunteer opportunities is one of the member benefits of PIN. For Membership support, please contact Kim Cusimano, Communications and Program Coordinator kim@PINnetwork.ca or by calling (519) 822-0912.
